

Mrs E. P. Bedwell

Rushworth Chronicle

18 June, 1897

DEATH.

BEDWELL —On the 12th June, at her residence, "Glenara," Rushworth, Mary Anne, the dearly-beloved wife of E. P. Bedwell, aged 36 years.

Anxious striving, best of mothers,
All thy care and troubles o'er;
Now at God's right hand enjoying
Endless pleasure evermore.
Gentle in manner, patient in pain.
Our dear one left us heaven to gain;
So good was her nature and action so kind;
Hard in this world is her equal to find.

—Inserted by her loving husband and children.

Mrs E P. Bedwell's many friends will regret to learn that she expired at her residence, Moora, after a short illness, on Saturday last.

The respect in which she was held was amply shown by the number of residents who followed the remains to the Rushworth cemetery on Monday. The cortege consisted of 46 loaded vehicles, 27 horsemen, besides a large number on foot.

The Rev. J. R. Walker read the burial service in his usually impressive manner. Mr Anderson had charge at the funeral arrangements.
